VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sister Martha Drain has been very sick for some time. She is somewhat better. We hope she will continue to improve. Sister Jennie Lee is also better and we hope she will continue likewise. Sister Molly Hines is the same. Brother Jas. Lewis died very suddenly last week and it was very sad indeed. We extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathies. Sunday was a busy day at our Church. Morning service was well attended and every pew in the auditorium was occupied and the most impressive part of the service was the Juvenile Choir composed of members of the Sunday school. The 30 well trained voices sang like tones of thunder that much favored song "Praise Ye the Father." The choir was under the direction of Miss Eva Moore and Mrs. Gertrude Tibbs. The Sunday school was grand. Over 600 eggs were given away and the collection was $27.87. The theme of all our services was the "Lord is risen indeed; he is not here."

EBENEZER A. M. E. CHURCH.

Rev. W. C. Williams preached an excellent sermon on the "Resurrection of Christ." Beautiful and touching music was rendered by the Choir of which Mrs. L. E. Butler is Chorister. The beautiful decorations by the Sunday school committee were indeed a sight to the occasion. Many souls were added to the church. The greatest program ever presented by this Sunday School was rendered under the management of Mrs. Anna Roberts, Supt. Mrs. Dimery Taylor and Abner, teachers. There were three excellent selections rendered by Melford's orchestra. Many were turned from the door. The church received a check for five dollars from Dr. Theo. Smith the well known druggist for which it is thankful.

Be Not Content.

Sad will be the day for every man when he becomes absolutely contented with the life that he is living, with the thoughts that he is thinking, with the deeds that he is doing, when there is no longer beating at the doors of his soul some great desire to do something larger, which he knows that he was meant and made to do because he is still the child of God—Phillips Brooks.

HIGHLAND AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Easter Sunday was a very busy day. The Sunday school at 9:30 was largely attended. Good missionary collection. At 11 o'clock Pastor Mills preached a powerful sermon on "The Coming Resurrection." The holy spirit was in the building. Two additions at this service. At 4:30 p. m., the B. Y. P. U. had a rousing meeting. Their Easter program was a very good one. I am glad to say the Auxiliary under the presidency of Mrs. A. Knox and the tutelage of Pastor Mills is progressing wonderfully. From a membership of about ten a month ago, it has steadily grown until it has about 40 members, one-third of which are not members of our church. God is indeed blessing us. At 7:30 p. m., the choir rendered its Easter program after which the Business Men's League took charge of the service. The attendance on this occasion was very, very good. Collection $27.15. In a company doing business in every state in the Union composed of some of the best writers the country affords, the printed records sent to all parts of the United States on new business last February gave E. A. Robinson first place in Missouri and third place in the entire country. Robinson's special agency commission giving him permission to use his own trained assistants under his immediate superintendency. Mr. G. F. Porter is director of Kansas and Missouri divisions of the Standard Life Insurance Company. Mr. Robinson's commission granted him by Mr. Herman E. Perry, president of the Standard Life under the supervision of Mr. G. Porter is a distinct recognition of local merit. Mr. Robinson's entire force consists of Kansas City boys. The selection of Robinson by Mr. Perry and Mr. Porter is a chance given to home talent rewarding where reward is due and inspires hope and confidence.

Individual or Group.

The words never should be connected by a disjunctive conjunction. The proper word between the nouns is "and," not "or." The caption above implies that the terms can be separated, and they cannot. The question was asked the other day if the growth of group life was destroying the worth of the individual. The reply was given by a business man who told of a request that had come to him the day before for a man to stand at the center of a big group at a salary that makes a minister rub his eyes. The great need of the organized group was an individual. The two cannot be sundered. The young man who says that there is no longer any chance for the individual does not know the facts. Each is necessary to the other. The proper conjunction is "and." Get that into your mind, young man, and then make good.—The Congregationalist.

Ireland's Signposts.

Ireland is the country for useless signposts. During the last few years there has been an outbreak of Gaelic League activity in the country. Among other manifestations it has taken the form of erecting signposts with Gaelic inscriptions. There is one such in the little village of Omeath, in County Louth. It directs the traveler to Carlingford and to Newry—but it directs him in an unknown tongue. It is not easy to see what useful purposes is served by such a signpost. For the inhabitant knows his way without any such assistance and the English-speaking traveler is unable to find it unless he happens to consult one of the villagers, not one of whom so far as I have been able to discover—can either read or speak a single word of Gaelic.—London Chronicle.

"Bob" and "Cob."

Most people would know what was meant by the term "bob" speaking of money. But would they be able to say offhand what a "cob" is, or was, in similar connection? It was used in polite circles in the seventeenth century, for it occurs in a letter from the Earl of Essex: "So my wife gave her a cob, for which she seemed very thankful"—printed on the new volume of the "Camden" series, the editor of which gives the information that the cob was "a piece of money, the value of which varied from four shillings to as much as six shillings in 1675."—London Chronicle.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION.

More Mothers Testify to Merits of XXth Century Hair Preparations.

Nelson, Mo., April 13, 1913. Dear Madam Dabney: I am writing you for a small order. I want you to please send by mail 3 bottles of shampoo, 3 boxes of hair grower and 2 boxes of pressing oil. I like the remedy just fine; I would not be without it for anything. I am using it on my little girl's hair; it seems to be helping it greatly.

MRS. ANNA BRUNER.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 20, 1913. Dear Madam Dabney: I am a mother of four girls. In trying to improve their hair I had tried several preparations, but none gave me good results until I used Madam Dabney's XXth Century Preparations. Their hair was thin, harsh and would fall out so that I dreaded to use a comb. Now their hair is growing nicely—does not fall out—has no dandruff—is soft and pretty. Three of these girls are attending Wendell Phillips School, Howard and Vine streets. Investigation will bear out my testimony. I would not be without the XXth Century Preparation in my house.

MRS. DORA HAWKINS, 2455 Woodland Ave.

A six week's treatment of Madam P. M. Dabney's XXth Century Hair Preparations sent on receipt of P. O. money order of $1.25, or a single package of XXth Century Hair Grower, Pressing Oil or Shampoo sent for 50c. Write today to Madam P. M. Dabney's XXth Century Hair Preparations Co., 1805 E. 24th St., Kansas City, Mo., Dept. 40.

Golden Steam Dye Works

1605 EAST 18TH STREET

When sending your clothing to be cleaned and pressed have you ever realized, and every clean minded man would shudder with disgust at the thought, that the cloth use to press your suit had just previously been used to press the suit of a man suffering from Disease, Filthy Habits, etc.—the cloth in the interim being wet and wrung out in a pail of probably dirtier water, especially so toward the end of the day's work?

OLD WAY OF PRESSING

To overcome unsanitary methods we have installed an up-to-date Sanitary Steam Press. A garment that passes through this machine is disinfected, as no germs or microbes can exist under a temperature as high as the dry steam we inject. At the same time it removes any odor, takes away the grimy appearance, raises the nap, revives the colors and imparts to the garment that freshness desired by all dressers.

NEW WAY OF PRESSING

We are Hatters, Tailors and Cleaners. No delay in getting your work. We do everything in our own shop. When you send us your work we do not have to disappoint or delay you, as our equipment is equal to anyone's. We specialize on quality and carefulness, for it it pleases you it pleases us.

We have one of the best Dyeing and Tailor Shops in the city. Everything new and up-to-date. We are prepared to clean any garment, no matter how richly trimmed or flounced, without injury. We employ only expert workmen and guarantee to satisfy every customer. Soliciting an opportunity to serve you, we are yours.

If you should ask a Kansas Cityan as to the most elegant and popular barber shop in the city he would undoubtedly say—The Palace Barber Shop at 1513 East Nineteenth street (near Vine) owned by that prince of good fellows—Prof. J. C. Hobbs—who, also, has next door one of the neatest and best kept Pool Halls in town. Prof. Hobbs employs only the BEST workmen, among whom are Messrs. C. J. Nelson, David Robinson, W. T. Scott and H. A. Peace, while he himself is a barber of acknowledged ability. Ernest Turner, the best known porter in Kansas City, looks after the comfort of his patrons with Miss Mary A. Woodson, the neat and capable cashier. Prof. Hobbs is also Kansas City's most popular dancing master, being manager of the People's Dancing Academy, which dances every Thursday night at Lytle Hall, 1731 Lydia Avenue, all the latest dances.
